*You don't need twelve pairs. But you probably have them anyway.
So here's a better approach — five that actually serve you:*

1. THE WORKHORSE

- Closed-toe, 2-3 inch heel, neutral (black, tan, beige, brown)
- Walkable, reliable, perfect for presentations, pitches, and power moves
- My Pick: The Natural Skin-Tone Pump

2. THE BOSS BLACK PATENT

- Pointed toe, high-gloss finish
- The ultimate “Don’t Play With Me” energy
- Perfect with suiting, white shirts, and bold lipstick

3. THE STATEMENT PAIR

- Bold color, texture, or detail
- Suede, satin, prints, or metallic
- For events, milestones, or when you're feeling spicy
- This if your personality in heel form

4. THE DAY-TO-NIGHT MULE

- Convertible, walkable heel (1-2.5 inches max)
- Slingback or open-back style
- Works for casual Fridays and cocktails after work

5. THE JUST-FOR-FUN

- Maybe it's a seasonal trend, or something outrageous
- You love them even if you only wear them once a year
- These are your joy shoes. No justification needed.
